ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Set address correlation correlates between addresses belonging to a common address set. Addresses are grouped into address sets and correlations are created between addresses by set. The correlations are used to predict future addresses based on current addresses.